

Application for Spouse Tuition Scholarship

Application Restrictions:

- 1) You may apply for a spouse scholarship for up to the number of credits for which the full-time student is registered in a given semester (Fall/Spring) or term (Winter/Summer).
- 2) The credits awarded must be applied only to classes necessary for the program in which the spouse is enrolled.
- 3) This application is for a tuition scholarship only. Applicants must pay student fees, application fees, mentored ministry fee (if applicable), books, etc.
- 4) If the full-time student drops below full-time status the Spouse Tuition Scholarship no longer applies and the spouse will be expected to pay tuition.
- 5) If the full-time student transfers from the MDiv program to a non-MDiv program, the spouse must resubmit the Spouse Tuition Scholarship (and fill out both sides of the application).

If the full-time student is NOT in the Master of Divinity program, the full-time student (not the spouse) must answer the following questions:

(Continue on separate paper if necessary.)

1. How do you intend to pay for your tuition?

2. Because the spouse tuition program is intended to assist couples who will be in ministry together, what are your plans after you graduate from Westminster?

3. How might your spouse use the education and training available at Westminster in this ministry?

4. Briefly describe your involvement in ministry up to this point.

APPROVALS (required if the full-time student is in a non-MDiv program):
